АРХОЗОПИЯНСКОСТИ This guy does that from every corner of the house as well as his gym, rather than in one precise spot or location. We've chatted with David Harris, a Michigan based computer geek and amateur inventor, who has created a whole series of devices with the purpose of helping people lose weight.
One of these was a nifty Bluetooth speaker called the Radically Slimmer, which tapped into your phone's bluetooth and transmitted the instructions of how you can see yourself slimmer and healthier as soon as you listen to them.
